

Blame the Normans

©2023 Andrew Anker, <https://quid.pro>

Across

1. “__ Dreams of Sushi”
5. Canning tomato
9. Speed tracker
14. Patron saint of Norway
15. Satisfied... a bit too much
16. Top notch, in both French and English
17. Innocent, in both French and English
18. Flower container, in both French and English
19. Relinquished
20. One who takes risks, in both French and English
23. Grabbed a seat
24. Raw, in both French and English
28. Green or black reptile you would generally be best to avoid interacting with
32. Cost of doing business out-of-state
33. Unaccompanied, in both French and English
37. Belted garment, in both French and English
38. Son
39. Big fans of me time?
42. Photographer and activist Goldin
43. It makes the pupil, in both French and English
45. A private conversation, in both French and English
47. 1980’s TV series “Remington __”
50. Final inning in most baseball games
51. Large wave (yes, in both Japanese and English but that’s not really the theme here, is it?)
53. “Yikes that is bad!”
57. People with money but no status, in both French and English
61. Artist’s cap, in both French and English
64. Types
65. The vegetarian option at many BBQ joints
66. Leases an apartment
67. Nobel laureate Wiesel
68. Not provocative
69. Jaded, in both French and English

1	2	3	4		5	6	7	8		9	10	11	12	13
14					15					16
17					18					19
20				21					22
23								24				25	26	27
			28		29	30	31		32
33	34	35						36			37
38				39					40	41		42
43			44			45					46
47				48	49		50
51						52				53		54	55	56
			57				58	59	60
61	62	63				64					65
66						67					68
69						70					71

70. Without, in both French and English
71. Body piercing option

Down

1. Comedian Leslie of “Saturday Night Live”
2. Comedian Glazer of “Broad City”
3. Rock and Roll Hall of Fame musician Bonnie
4. Passage to the road less traveled?
5. “Let me know...”, in both French and English
6. Michael K. Williams role in “The Wire”
7. Artist’s inspiration, in both French and English
8. Dealmaker, in both French and English
9. Happens again
10. More caffeinated, perhaps
11. “Oops!... I __ It Again”
12. Supped
13. Loss color?

21. Race segment, in French only (quel dommage!)
22. __ de toilette, in both French and English
25. Observe Yom Kippur
26. Moroccan capital
27. Ms. Cervenka, of the band X
29. Ms. White, of the band White Stripes
30. Ink spot
31. Unfamiliar
33. The biggest stars, for instance
34. Vehicles for lazy golfers
35. Farewell, in both French and English
36. Bubbly city in Italy
40. Dix, en Anglais
41. Greek demigod who liked to... well, a lot of things that would ruin our “all audiences” rating
44. Trumpet calls in Elizabethan drama (cluing this as “barracudas” would have been just as bad, I’m sorry)

46. Believers in one thing?
48. Ancient Chinese philosopher
49. Big flightless bird
52. Columbia and Cornell, e.g.
54. A certain kind of glow, in both French and English
55. Sea World orca that somehow appeared in shows at three different parks at the same time
56. Cut down, as a tree
58. “__ Enchanted” (2004 Anne Hathaway film)
59. Analogous (to)
60. Applications
61. “One sec” on IM
62. The British like to eat it jellied
63. Jennifer Doudna’s current area of study